

Parallel Epidemiology session:

Saturday 9 June 2007

8:30 – 10:30

15 minutes talk, 5 minutes discussion

5 to 6 speakers

Chairman Jan Nico Bouwes Bavinck and Hywel Williams

Time	Speaker	Subject
	Hywel Williams (Nottingham, UK)	Why is epidemiology of skin cancer important?
	Thomas Diepgen (Heidelberg, Germany)	Epidemiology of non-melanoma skin cancer
	Jean-Jacques Grob (Marseille, France)	How much epidemiological data on melanoma can influence prevention and screening strategies
	Irene Leigh (London, UK)	Risk factors of skin cancer in organ-transplant recipients
	Tamar Nijsten (Rotterdam, The Netherlands)	Skin cancer after PUVA treatment
	Luigi Naldi (Bergamo, Italy)	Prevention of skin cancer

Email adressen:

hywel.williams@nottingham.ac.uk

Thomas_Diepgen@med.uni-heidelberg.de jean-jacques.grob@mail.ap-hm.fr i.m.leigh@dundee.ac.uk

t.nijsten@erasmusmc.nl

Luigi Naldi: gised@uninetcom.it